

Mrs. A. O. Smoot joined the Provo choir in Wasmach valley this week and will spend a week or so in the mountains.

Miss Birdie Stoddard of Lehi was in town this week visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Roberts left today for Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Boulton concluded a visit to Chuk Creek last Monday.

Deputy Recorder Miss Rose Young concluded a visit to relatives in Louisville, Ind., Wednesday.

Robert Irvine and wife were visitors in the city Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. Walter and Miss Minnie and Hazel started left Thursday evening for a pleasure trip to the coast.

A party of Provo people consisting of Mr. and Mrs. William Starup and Mr. and Mrs. George Starup and Mrs. Starup left this week for a short outing among the pines in Provo canyon.

Attorney E. E. Coffman was in Pleasant Grove today on professional business.

Mrs. Fred Nelson went to Castella today where she will remain for two weeks.

John S. Rolfe, county stenographer, left for Richfield Thursday to resume his official duties.

Allie John was in Payson yesterday.

E. S. Smith went to Nephi last evening.

John F. Childster, district attorney for the Sixth district, was in town this week.

J. Beck was in Sanpete county this week.

Attorney J. W. Whitcomb was in Clear Creek Thursday.

County Attorney Jacob Evans was in American Fork Thursday on legal business.

City Attorney Evans of Lehi was over Thursday.

Warren Foster of Salt Lake was in town this week.

Frank Dusenberry has left for Telluride, Colo., to accept a position with the Telluride Power & Transmission company.

Will Lee and Alex Hedquist are enjoying an outing in the Provo canyon this week.

Judge H. S. Tanner of Springfield, Ill., was here yesterday on business connected with the Blackburn estate.

Mrs. M. M. Johnson and children of Circleville have moved to this city.

Dr. Duwell of Salt Lake is in town this week.

Thomas Schindler went to Tintic today.

A concert was given in the Third ward last night in honor of B. Bullock, who leaves shortly on a mission.

Prof. Joseph Horne and wife have returned from Cornell. Mr. Horne will teach in the B. Y. A. this coming year.

Judge W. H. King was in town yesterday.

Joshua Greenwood is up from Filmore.

M. M. Warner is in Tintic.

E. B. R. Ferguson was over from Lake Shore yesterday.

Attorney Joseph E. Page was over from Payson yesterday.

Mrs. J. B. Keeler and children have gone to the coast to visit California relatives.

Mrs. George R. Lund of St. George has joined her husband in Provo.

Andrew Adamson was over from American Fork early in the week.

Lafayette E. Huntman came up from Filmore this week and will resume his law studies with M. M. Warner.

D. D. Houtz and W. M. McKendrick went to Eureka this morning.

The following marriage licenses were granted this week by the clerk of Utah county:

Henry T. Tanner, 29, and Eliza Allsop, 24, both of Payson.

Antonio Puentes, 24, Pleasant View, and Flora Kowke, 25, Lehi.

John Williams, 24, and Fannie Robinson, 22, both of American Fork.

George F. Kinder, 29, and Nettie Gregg, 26, both of Payson.

Antonio Peterson, 22, and Millie Wilde, 21, both of Provo.

Edward P. Cox, 65, and Annie Hughes, 41, both of Lehi.

W. M. Brown, 22, Robinson, and M. A. Goff, 24, Richfield.

Nathan Nevada, 21, and Annie Shaw, 23, both of Eureka.

The two last named couples were married by Judge Booth today.

Dr. S. H. Allen was in Salt Lake today.

A pretty wedding took place in the Pleasant View ward last night. Miss Millie Wilde and Mr. Antonio Peterson being the bride and groom. The bride is the daughter of Abraham Wilde, and the reception took place at his residence. The young people are well known in this city. About seventy-five guests were present.

MT. PLEASANT SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)
Mt. Pleasant, Aug. 12.—Miss Sarah A. Stott and A. Jensen and Messrs. Jensen and Tuff of Castle Valley were in Mt. Pleasant several days during the early part of the week visiting relatives and friends.

Attorney Soren N. Christensen paid the capital city a flying visit the first of the week, being called there on legal business.

J. W. Seely returned to his Castle Valley home Monday.

Andrew and Niel Madsen, the forepart of the week.

De H. P. Morrey went down to Sterling Sunday on a short trip.

James Borg and family went to Chester last week and called on numerous friends a couple of days.

Joseph Jordan returned this week from a trip to Emery county.

Ebner Jolley of Moroni was in Mt. Pleasant Tuesday afternoon.

Andrew Johnson of Fairview passed through town on his way to the southern part of the county.

Moroni Branch of Spring City came up Tuesday and spent the day.

Andrew Jensen and wife came over from Moroni Tuesday to look after some business matters.

M. Gabory of Salt Lake is in the city canvassing for a Pioneer map, which is selling rapidly.

J. G. Weaver of Salt Lake, who is at present visiting relatives at Mant, came up to the Queen City the latter part of the week and interviewed several of the business men of the town.

Mrs. John Gold returned to her home in Salt Lake City last Sunday.

W. H. Woodring made a short business trip to Salt Lake on Sunday, returning Tuesday.

James Clawson of Spring City has spent a portion of the week in Mt. Pleasant.

Eugene Alfred came up from Spring City Monday to attend to business affairs.

Bishop C. N. Lund spent the early days of the week in the southern part of the county.

Miss Lena Jensen returned home to Salt Lake the fore part of the week.

O. Eliason was over from Moroni on Tuesday.

Mrs. Ann Powell and Mrs. Leo Burnett, who have been visiting with relatives in Lehi since the death of Leo Burnett, two months ago, came home Saturday, intending to stay, but a telegram was received the same day announcing the death of a relative and they went back to Lehi again Sunday. They are home again, and will remain here for some time.

P. Justesen came in to Mt. Pleasant on Wednesday and was looking after business matters.

Charles Livingston, one of Moroni's substantial citizens, was circulating among friends in Mt. Pleasant on Tuesday.

James Rigby came down from Fairview for a few hours Wednesday.

A. Thompson, resident of Castle Valley, has been here for several days of this week.

Gunder Peterson was down Wednesday from Indianola.

Fred Bowman, the mason, went over to Fountain Green Wednesday and will remain there the rest of the month.

Peter Jensen of Spring City was here during the middle of the week.

H. Hansen of Fountain Green was here Wednesday.

James Jolley and wife were in Mt. Pleasant from Moroni Thursday.

O. C. Anderson paid Salt Lake a business visit Thursday, returning Saturday.

Ed Canfield, the Chester stock and sheep buyer, was up a couple of days during the week.

John N. Erickson and C. J. Jensen were disappointed in not getting away on their eastern trip last week.

About fifteen excursionists from this city were left at Castella Springs Saturday night by not paying attention to the leaving of trains. They remained over night and came home on the passenger train the following morning.

Fred Canfield drove up from Chester on Thursday.

Byron Wheeler called over from Eureka Tuesday by a message announcing the critical illness of his little child.

Professor Anton Christensen and mother have spent the last week in Spring City.

B. C. Watkins, the Provo architect, stopped off here a few hours on the road south the early part of the week. He looked over buildings which are under his supervision.

Samuel Halverson is a young man from Ogden, spent a week in Mt. Pleasant visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James Proctor went down to Bingham and Salt Lake Sunday and remained there with friends until Thursday.

Passengers on Sunday's north-bound train, among whom were a dozen or more from this city, were greatly inconvenienced by the train being delayed twenty hours by a flood in Thistle valley. The train was backed down to Fairview and the passengers were fortunate in getting home and beds with friends and at hotels, before being obliged to spend the night on the train.

Mrs. Mary Whitham of Salt Lake, formerly Mrs. Mary Aldrich of this city, came down early in the week and is visiting here. Her husband was surprised to learn that she had married again. She has been traveling and expects to take a pleasure trip to California after her return to Salt Lake.

Joshua Beck, a prominent jeweler of Provo, is spending the week in this city visiting friends.

Moroni Branch of Spring City came up Tuesday and spent the day.

William Dotson and wife are spending the week with their daughter, Mrs. Francis Jensen. They have disposed of their interests at Minersville, and will go to Wyoming, where they will make their home in future.

Mrs. A. G. Knevel of Salt Lake City is in Mt. Pleasant, her old home, visiting friends. She is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Jensen.

William Brady was down from Fairview on business Wednesday, returning the same day.

S. Clark of Fairview was down on a short business trip Thursday.

Iver P. Peterson of Spring City was seen in Mt. Pleasant Thursday.

Chris Clawson is over from Emery county this week visiting with his old-time friends and relatives in this valley. He is doing nicely in his new home, Spring City.

P. C. Barreton, sheriff of Emery county, is visiting his mother, who lives at Spring City. His family accompanied him, and he was taking advantage of the opportunity to renew old acquaintances.

Delos Lund returned from Oregon this week and is now at his home in Spring City.

Bishop Johnson and wife of Fountain Green paid Mt. Pleasant a short visit on Thursday.

I. Hergensburger and H. C. Tavey, Chicago commercial travelers, were in town with Mt. Pleasant business men this week.

Oscar Booth was over from Nephi during the middle of the week.

Ed Perfor was a traveler from St. Louis who was in Mt. Pleasant the fore part of this week.

Harry Jacobs and J. Cooper of Ogden were in Mt. Pleasant during the week interviewing the merchants of the place.

W. S. Owen and T. W. Penfold were Salt Lake visitors who were here during the present week.

Thomas C. Williams was a Pittsburg business man seen on our streets during the week.

E. C. Casaday was here from Nephi on Thursday.

It is reported that Dr. L. Burdick of Spring City will be married in the near future to a Miss Ellen Nordstrom of Sandy.

Mrs. Mary Young went up to Mercut Thursday.

Peter Peterson is in Ogden visiting this week.

Miss Hildie Peterson, a young society lady of Ephraim, is in Mt. Pleasant on a short visit, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Erickson.

SPRINGVILLE SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)
Springville, Aug. 12.—The following ladies have been appointed to look after the banquet at the reception to the volunteers next week:

Messdame R. A. Deal, R. L. Bird, H. M. Douglass, Don C. Johnson, William M. Royance, C. P. Thompson, Henry Mendenhall, H. L. Cummings, F. M. West, Selma Alteman, A. W. Finley, Fred Dunn, I. N. Whitaker, Israel Clegg, George Harrison and A. O. Packard.

With these well known and talented ladies at the head of affairs, the banquet cannot but be a marked success.

The medals for this city's returning volunteers will be presented to them by the Mant Militia company at the Opera house Friday evening. About seventy-five couples were in attendance and they had a splendid time. Christensen's orchestra furnished the music.

Fred Kamerman of Mant was in the city Friday.

Johnny Olsen left for Emery county Tuesday. He expects to be gone about one month.

Miss Anna Frost returned from Salt Lake City Sunday.

Horace Brown was over from Mant Friday.

Tom Reese of Wales was in town Saturday afternoon.

Miss Lydia Jensen of Mant visited friends in this city Monday.

Rev. J. M. Hansen returned from Richfield the first of the week.

C. J. Christensen is celebrating the arrival of a baby girl at his home.

Miss Aurelia Nelson went to Salt Lake City Sunday.

Charles Christensen was up from Mant Tuesday.

Ivan J. Oates came over from Emery county Friday.

Over 200 people from this city attended the Press day excursion at Castella Springs last Saturday.

Miss Anna March came home from Salt Lake City Sunday. She was accompanied by her sister Tilda.

Ily McFarlane who has been playing with the Red Stockings, returned home Sunday.

Jacob Jensen's family was increased by the arrival of a new girl this week.

N. W. Anderson and family of Mant, old time residents of this city, are in town visiting friends and relatives.

James F. Clawson came down from Castella Springs Tuesday.

Miss Cattie Dorris returned from an extended visit in the southern part of the state Sunday.

Ernest Madsen and wife of Mant, visited friends here this week.

John F. Christensen returned from Castella with the excursion party Saturday night to spend a few days at home. He went back again Tuesday.

Bert Brimhall and wife returned from Emery county Friday.

Mrs. John F. Quinn is visiting relatives in Emery county.

L. C. Christensen of Frisco has been spending some days with his family in this city. He left Tuesday to visit friends at Gunnison.

Hyrum Dorris and his mother returned from Castella the last of the week. They had a pleasant time visiting relatives and friends on their trip.

Sergeant Ed Coddige of battery A, came up from Mant to attend the military ball at the Opera house Friday night.

A new baby girl is causing rejoicing at the home of Andrew Armstrong.

John Reid passed through town today in a private schooner, accompanied by his family. They were on their way to Orangeville, Emery county. While the family is engaged in visiting relatives and friends, John will circulate around the Emery county mining camps and do a little prospecting. He expects to remain there for several weeks.

Will Douglas and wife were seen on our streets shaking hands with old friends the first of the week.

Knoch Jorgensen and wife of Mant, visited the old home Wednesday.

The Misses Nain and Lizale Bardeley of Gunnison visited Willard Peterson's family this week.

Miss Florene Winn of Nephi has been visiting Joe Thorpe's family in this city for the past ten days.

Joe Willardson of Mayfield was in town Tuesday.

Dick Bradshaw of the firm of Bradshaw Brothers of Lehi is in the city.

William Ling of Chester was in town the first of the week.

John Handy has moved his family in from Gunnison.

Miss Eda Anderson of Castella, who has been visiting here for some time past, left for her home Tuesday.

Mrs. Caroline Black of Deseret, accompanied by her son, is visiting relatives here.

Apostle A. H. Lund came down from Salt Lake City Monday after his family who have been visiting here for some time past. They returned home Tuesday.

The party of young people who went to the canyon last Friday did not have a very pleasant outing. It rained nearly every day.

Joe Hansen and wife of Mant were in town Tuesday visiting friends. They expect to leave for Oregon in the near future.

Mrs. E. P. Thomsen visited relatives in Sterling the last of the week.

William Rosquist and family visited friends in Gunnison the first of the week.

Nielson and wife returned from Salt Lake City Tuesday. They spent a week in the metropolis.

John Thompson of Fountain Green was in town the first of the week.

John Lawson, the "Terrible Swede" passed through town yesterday.

D. K. Brown of Nephi was in town today.

Preparations are being made for a big demonstration when our volunteers return. The whole town will assemble at the station when the boys arrive, and a procession will form there and march through the principal streets. A program will be carried out in the meeting house after which a big banquet will be held in the Opera house. During the banquet each of our six volunteers will be presented with a handsome token of esteem by the people of the city.

David N. Bear and Olof Thorsen were Junco county visitors the first of the week.

A number of sports from this city are going up to Mt. Pleasant to see Mt. Pleasant and Chester play ball tomorrow.

Mrs. Parley Peterson of Shumway will entertain a party of friends from this city Sunday.

A big crowd from this city will go to Salt Lake next week to welcome the volunteers.

Miss Cordelia Dorris returned from Salt Lake City Sunday.

DAVIS COUNTY SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)
Farmington, Aug. 12.—Henry Orvill of this place returned on Thursday from a mission in Colorado and Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Sneed of Logan have been visiting here this week. Mr. Sneed has returned home but his wife will spend the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Barnes returned home to Salt Lake this evening after a pleasant visit in Kayville.

Willard Galley of Kayville is home from a mission to North Carolina.

Mrs. Maggie Laycock and Miss Nora Bonomo went to Ogden last evening on a visit.

Mrs. F. B. Williams of Kayville is visiting in Salt Lake.

County Clerk Phillips and family and James H. Larkins and family of Kayville started this morning for a week's outing in East canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Swan, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Christensen of Layton, and the members of their families returned on Thursday from a fishing trip.

Albert Bouzer and family are enjoying an outing in the mountains.

RICHFIELD SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)
Richfield, Aug. 12.—C. Ernest, of Vernal and C. T. Ball of Fremont, Wayne county, who are special forest rangers appointed to look after the Fish Lake reservation, were in Richfield last week after supplies. They have been delegated with authority to make apportionment of sheep which will be placed on the reserve under the same conditions as the recently granted sheepmen on the Uinta reservation.

Seventeen people from Richfield took in the Castella excursion last Saturday.

C. D. Burtholder, postmaster at Joseph, was in town shaking hands with friends last Saturday. He has just returned from a trip through California, Arizona and southern Utah, entailing an absence of several months.

D. W. Colebar, ex-editor of the Morgan Mirror, was a visitor in Richfield last week.

George Real and wife returned a few days ago after a two weeks' visit with relatives at Ephraim.

Miss Stella Boyd came again after an absence of several months at Eureka.

Ben Carter, Jr., came home from Salt Lake Sunday where he has been for several months past. He will probably remain for a couple of weeks. He was a member of the party at the home of the former Wednesday evening of this week. Refreshments were served and prizes awarded as follows: Ladies' first, Mrs. E. P. LeCompte; ladies' second, Miss Cora Snyder; ladies' third, Mrs. John Doren; gentlemen's first, W. V. Rice; gentlemen's second, John Doren; gentlemen's third, Fred Smith.

Mrs. Charles Shields entertained forty ladies at a 10 o'clock luncheon on Thursday afternoon. After serving refreshments a game of cards was indulged in. The following prizes were given: Ladies' first, Miss Dorothy Vaughn of Ogden; second, Mrs. Eva Buehler; third, Miss McComber, who is the guest of Mrs. W. G. Lamb. Musical selections were given by Miss Hodges.

John T. Butler, who left last February for Mexico, returned home Sunday. Mexico, he said, did not suit him as well as Utah.

W. P. Durkee, a Denver cattle buyer, was in Richfield a few days ago on his way to Boulder valley in Garfield county, where he expects to pick up some stock.

Thomas Gillan, one of the owners of the Out of Sight mine at Marysville, is spending the week in this city.

Irving Hansen came down from Castella

Sunday and left Monday for Provo, where he accepted a position in a band which is going out on a tour.

Messrs. Lowry and Peacock were in Richfield for a few minutes Monday on their way south where they had been purchasing sheep.

Mr. Weymouth of Gunnison visited in Richfield last week, returning home Tuesday.

County Treasurer Jensen of Salina attended to work in his office here this week.

John Iles, fish and game warden for Sevier county, returned from the Fish Lake reservation Sunday, where he has been all summer, looking after the fish and game of the reserve. There were a few violations of the law and consequent arrests.

John F. Childster of Panhandle, district attorney for this district, went to Richfield Monday to contest the attempt to habeas corpus "Silver Tip" Hawkins out of jail. The compromise on a reduction of bail was accepted. Mr. Childster returned as far as this city last evening.

Miss Kitty Schirder visited at Gunnison this week.

Charlton Seggiller's wife presented him with a boy Tuesday.

Mrs. Dr. St. John went north on Tuesday's train.

V. Rapp, who has been absent for some weeks in Wayne and San Juan counties, returned Sunday. He says he was in the Robbers' Roost country, but that there were no indications of the present habitation by robbers.

Mrs. Dr. Campbell, who has been visiting her mother here, Mrs. G. H. Herbert, and Mrs. J. M. Peterson, went to Beaver, the home of the former, this week.